Interview Cake

Given a list of integers, find the highest product you can get from three of the integers.

The input `list_of_ints` will always have at least three integers.

Want more coding interview help?

Check out interviewcake.com for more advice, guides, and practice questions.